

INTRO

Main

I've been in digital marketing for about 15 years now. Most of my time has been in the B2B & SaaS space with experience and expertise across a wide range of areas and responsibilities – everything from search engine marketing, paid digital, and conversion optimization...to...content development, customer lifecycle marketing, advocacy, product marketing, and other disciplines.

Throughout this, I've advanced from tactical roles to more strategic ones – approaching digital marketing more holistically and across channels, building and scaling programs, taking on higher-level responsibilities, team management, and more-and-more collaboration with stakeholders and senior leaders.

Customer MKT

I've been in digital marketing for about 15 years now. If you look at my career, you'll see it spans a lot of areas of B2B digital marketing. But what stands out is my transition from client success to marketing, where I've taken my years of experience of working directly with customers and applied it to programs that market to existing clients – a progression from one-to-one relationships to one-to-many.

Throughout this, I've advanced from tactical roles to more strategic ones – approaching digital marketing more holistically and across the entire customer journey, building scalable programs, taking on higher level responsibilities, team mgt, and more and more collaboration with others.

Performance MKT

I've been in digital marketing for about 15 years now. Most of my time has been in the B2B & SaaS space with experience & expertise across a wide range of areas & responsibilities and search engine marketing & paid media always a core piece.

If you look at my career, you'll see a progression within digital marketing from tactical execution – like building and optimizing PPC, ABM, and display campaigns, conversion rate optimization, testing, and analytics – to more strategic one like:

- Implementing scalable & standardized processes to build & launch campaigns more quickly & effectively.
- Improving reporting capabilities to better interpret data, identify opportunities, and share actionable insights.
- Establishing goals and KPIs.
- Creating or refining messaging.
- Understanding the different advertising platforms, channels, marketing automation solutions, CRMs, and other technologies.
- Collaborating cross-functionally with DG, Product MKT, Creative, Content, CS, Sales, and other stakeholders.
- Overseeing and managing agencies and vendors.

Content

I've been in digital marketing for about 15 years now. Most of my time has been in the B2B & SaaS space with experience and expertise across a wide range of areas and responsibilities, with content always a core piece.

If you look at my career, you'll see a progression within digital marketing from tactical execution – like writing and publishing content, crafting messaging for paid ads and email campaigns, and managing asset databases – to more strategic one like:

- Building programs and implementing scalable processes to get content to market – from ideation to publication and distribution.
- Publishing content of various types, formats, and for multiple channels that deliver on higher-level marketing goals around demand gen, acquisition, product launches, adoption, and customer education, retention and upsells.
- Developing messaging tailored to different audiences & segments.
- Creating internal assets and resources for sales enablement and CS.
- Reporting on the impact of content along the customer journey.

JOBS

Momentive Software (Community Brands)

I lead the digital mkt team where I direct the SEO, paid ad, and web optimization efforts across all of the company's B2B brands and products. I own the strategy and guide programs that engage with prospects, drive traffic to the sites, and convert visitors into leads, MQL, SQLs, pipeline, and revenue.

- Making PPC, display, and paid social campaigns more impactful
- Streamlining and scaling the process of launching & maintaining campaigns
- Establishing digital-specific goals and KPIs that ensure our efforts are producing bottom-of-funnel results & revenue
- Improving ability to collect data, report on campaigns, identify improvement areas, and help cross-functional stakeholders make sense of the data.
- Ensuring we're targeting the right audience with the right messaging at the right time
- Improving UX & running A/B tests

Expedia

As a member of the mkt leadership team within Expedia's B2B business unit, I revamped the team's GTM efforts & oversaw all the mkt initiatives that required execution across multiple functions & channels. This required close collaboration w/ the mkt, content, sales, and product teams to make sure all campaigns were comprehensive, led with a cohesive narrative, leveraged the best channels, incorporated the right metrics, and were tied to key biz objectives.

WP Engine

I was responsible for the company's digital mkt programs for acquisition and expansion of enterprise companies and customers – initiatives that targeted large businesses to make them aware of new premium solutions. My responsibilities included: developing audience segments & messaging, writing content that translated technical capabilities into customer benefits, project managing campaigns, reporting on KPIs, and supporting enablement.

Bazaarvoice

During my 7 years at Bazaarvoice, my core responsibilities included:

- Managing the global lifecycle marketing program to engage and educate thousands of existing clients at scale to support retention, growth, & upsells
- Building an advocacy program to gather & showcase client successes and use their stories to strengthen a variety of cross departmental initiatives
- CS and sales enablement
- Content creation

WHY LEAVE COMPANY

Momentive Software: The mkt team operates more like an agency – responsible for so many diff brands and products, each w/ their own identities, audiences, and web properties.

Expedia: Culture wasn't an ideal fit – overemphasized status quo & very siloed. I thrive in an org that fosters creativity, collaboration & is receptive to change.

WHY COMPANY

- Reputation
- Culture fit
- Role – aligns w/ my experience, what I'm good at & what energizes me
- (Belief in company mission & products)

IDEAL WORK ENVIRONMENT

- Open-ended challenges w/ the license to question, express ideas, & identify optys & build solutions
- Be in position to guide others from my experience

HOW START / DAY ONE

Discovery:

- How is the team's performance evaluated? What defines success?
- What has worked? What hasn't?
- What are some of the challenges & most promising opportunities? Quick wins?
- How can I best support the team & the mission?

MY QUESTIONS

- How do you measure success in this role?
- What's one of the big challenges the team or mkt dept faces?
- What would make someone successful in the role?
- What kind of challenges can I expect in the role?

STRENGTHS

- Proactive & self-sufficient – able to work independently and unsolicitedly find ways to improve or build something without needing much guidance or direction

- Collaborative – evidenced by cross-functional awards
- Willingness to contribute in ways beyond core responsibilities
- Communication – ability to convey a vision (ex: presentations), inspire & encourage others

WEAKNESSES

- "If you want something done right" – But getting better at letting go of some control, delegating & providing feedback to set myself & others up for success
- Demotivated by too much routine

COLLABORATION / COMMUNICATION WITH OTHERS

- Respecting the diverse perspectives & strengths of team members
- Listening to others' ideas to get their perspective before giving my own input
- Encouraging open communication to ensure we're leveraging the collective intelligence
- Keeping everyone involved, so they feel a sense of ownership, and know they play a role

MANAGEMENT / LEADERSHIP STYLE

- Being open, transparent & collaborative
- Giving people space/ownership to make decisions & offering my support/guidance when they need it
- Ensuring the team shares a common goal & vision
- Being an advocate for the team
- Fostering a culture of accountability – delivering on commitments
- Ensuring learning optys to advance their careers

CONFLICT

- If it's a regular stakeholder, I'd have done the work ahead of time to build the relationship, so when we have these difficult conversations, we have a foundation of trust, which is key to preventing conflict in the first place
- Understand that everyone has different perspectives, styles, & desired outcomes
- Spend time listening
- Do HW beforehand to come prepared to speak w/ educated POV & data to support your case
- Use goals and customer centricity as the north star.

PROUDEST ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Shifting the perception of the digital team as a "shared service" to a true, valuable partner
 - Contribute more strategically and proactively
